

MARCH

From the pastor...

What is your number one priority for 2017? What would God think of your answer? What would God want your number one priority to be? Here is a suggestion: "It is required of stewards that a man be found faithful" (1 Cor. 4:2). You might recognize this as last month's memory verse.

When Paul wrote this passage he was being criticized and maligned. But the defamation of his character did not divert him from his priority, rather it crystalized his focus. How did he do it? He knew who he was. He knew what he was supposed to do. And he knew to Whom he was accountable. Lets apply these concepts to ourselves in 2017.

OUR IDENTITY. Paul knew who he was: "Let a man regard us as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God (1 Cor. 4:1). If we know who we are, we can more clearly understand our purpose in life. If we are servants of Christ, then Christ is our Master. We are under His authority. We strive to please Him, not merely ourselves. His honor, his will, his work is more important than our honor, our will, and our own way.

Onesimus was a slave who ran away from his master, Philemon. Paul led him to the Lord. With Christ in his heart, Onesimus returned to his master with the intent to fulfill his master's will and live up to the meaning of his name which was "profitable." We have all run from God but we can return to the Lord to fulfill His will. In 2017 we can live up to the name of Christian which means "belonging to Christ."

We are stewards. The Greek word used here means "house-manager." A steward, then, is not the owner but one who manages property for someone else. We are stewards of our lives, our bodies, our resources. Since they really belong to Him, we are to govern our time, our talents, and our treasure in ways that He would approve.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY. Paul knew that whatever happened, he was supposed to be faithful: "it is required of stewards that a man be found faithful" (1 Cor. 4:2). The word translated "required" actually means "to seek." The steward is to seek or strive to be faithful. But also, God seeks or looks for a faithful steward. That means He will give opportunities or "tests" to see if you are faithful. As you prove that you are faithful in smaller responsibilities He will entrust larger responsibilities to you. "He who is faithful in a very little thing is faithful also in much; and he who is unrighteous in a very little thing is unrighteous also in much" (Lk. 16:10). We all can expect some God-given opportunities in 2017 to show God that we are dependable. It may be difficult to be faithful in some of those opportunities but that is to be our priority.

OUR ACCOUNTABILITY. Paul was not intimidated by criticism. He knew who he was. He knew what he was supposed to do. And he knew to Whom he had to give an account of his life. He didn't have to meet others' standards (1 Cor. 4:3). He was not deceived to think that he was all right as long as he had a clear conscience. He had to give an account of his life to God, not to others nor to himself (1 Cor. 4:4).

What's your focus in 2017? Why not this: "It is required of stewards that a man be found faithful"?

Our missionary this year is Miss Judy Gaskin from Indonesia

I am involved in children's ministries in Indonesia. I was the Awana Indonesia Director for 10 years and on Jan 1, 2016 an Indonesian Director was chosen for Awana Indonesia. I also minister in Leadership Training for Sunday School leaders/teachers and teach in the Children's Ministry major and the Holistic Child Development major at Jaffray Seminary in Makassar, Sulawesi. I developed and assist in the Camp Good News Campgrounds (Retreat Center), Which is located around two hours from Jakarta. I also oversee a children's educational scholarship program to assist needy pastor's children with their educational needs. Her testimony and call to ministry:

"I was raised in a non-Christian home. At the age of 13 my mother died and I became a "mother" to my 3 younger siblings. When I was 16 we moved from Alabama to south Florida. One day we were visited by a C&MA pastor and his wife (Rev. & Mrs. Bill Nabors) and they invited us to attend Sunday School and they offered to pick us up so the next Sunday I was in Sunday School for the first time in my life. Three months later on New Year's Eve I gave my heart and life to Christ. Six months later while we were travelling on vacation and I was sitting in the backseat of our family car reading my Bible I read, "...come and see the place where he lay and then go quickly and tell...(Matthew 28:6-7). With an alcoholic father and from a low-income family I felt it was impossible for me to obey His call but I was to learn over the next 4 years there is nothing impossible for Him. Upon graduation from Toccoa Falls Bible College in 1969 I ministered with Child Evangelism Fellowship for two years in northwest Alabama before I left for Indonesia in 1972."

His proximity to the churches and His inspection of the enables Him to declare, "I know," when He reveals the state of each of the seven. He knows, as the letters themselves reveal, not only the long-term history and the weekly activities of the church, but also the hearts of all those involved. (Page 21)*

This is not about adding words to the canon of Scripture, but about the utilization of what Jesus has created His local churches to be. The seven letters show us how He speaks to churches, and He wants every one of us, to hear and heed what He is saying. (Page 14)

Everybody is invited to attend and participate in as much of this process as they are able. We are the Body of Christ, and Christ is speaking to His entire Body.
