We will be hosting a brunch wedding shower for Logan and Brooke. They are registered at Bed Bath and Beyond and Target.

FROM THE PASTOR

Meaning of Life

“Tennis star Boris Becker was at the very top of the tennis world—yet he was on the brink of suicide. He said, ‘I had won Wimbledon twice before, once as the youngest player. I was rich. I had all the material possessions I needed ... It’s the old song of movie stars and pop stars who commit suicide. They have everything, and yet they are so unhappy. I had no inner peace. I was a puppet on a string.’

*“Becker is not the only one to feel that sense of emptiness. The echoes of a hollow life pervade our culture. One doesn’t have to read many contemporary biographies to find the same frustration and disappointment. Jack Higgins, author of such successful novels and The Eagle Has Landed, was asked what he would like to have known as a boy. His answer: ‘That when you get to the top, there’s nothing there.’”*

~ Our Daily Bread, July 9, 1994

Fortunately, as followers of Jesus Christ, there is meaning to life, there is purpose, there is hope. Our meaning, purpose and hope is found in God, it can be found in our relationship with Him, it can be found in His will. This does not prevent us, as followers of Christ, from looking for significance, purpose, meaning, and fulfillment outside of God. We can easily fall into the same traps of this world by making success be defined by career, family, friends, social/church status, finances, etc.

So in Christ, what should our purpose, meaning and mission be? For starters, it should align with Christ’s. Why did Jesus come to earth? It wasn’t to build up, protect, comfort, etc. those that already knew Him, but Jesus Himself said when questioned: “For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.” (Luke 19:10). If anyone had the right to build their own “castle” here on earth, it is Jesus, but He didn’t. His primary objective was looking outward at those who were far from God, and to be used by God to bring salvation to them. Then Jesus would disciple them so that there would be a great spreading of Jesus’ grace and truth across this whole world. Hence the great commission that Jesus gave to His disciples “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations...” (Matthew 28:18).

With this in mind, what is our mission individually and the Church? What is the meaning and purpose of our life? By the power of the Holy Spirit to seek, save, and make disciples who seek, save, and make disciples. What is a fully developed disciple, what does that look like? One who reflects the character and priorities of Christ and is engaged in modeling and reproducing that in others. As followers of Christ, it is the heart of God that our character reflects the character of Christ. Our priorities reflect the priorities of Christ. And just as Jesus did we are exemplarily reproducing this in others.

What could have greater impact and meaning than being an instrument of God for reaching the lost for Christ and making disciples who are doing likewise?!? I would encourage you to meditate on this. Allow this to be your prayer. Ask the Holy Spirit to change you, do a great work in you, open your eyes to see this world as He sees it, and boldly step forward as He leads.

Hurricane Supply Return

On October 15, 2018, we were incredibly blessed to receive many items by our C&MA brothers and sisters to help us recover and rebuild from Hurricane Michael. While most of these items were consumables we were incredibly blessed by a number tools and other resources that we would like to collect them back so that they can be safely stored by the Southern District of the C&MA and quickly distributed the next time a natural disaster strikes in the Southern District (Panhandle, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee). Please see the list below of items that were lent out that we would like to collect. If you have borrowed something and are still using it please continue to utilize the blessing, but please let us know that you have it.

- Generators
- Poulan Chainsaws
- Cordless Drills, Impact Drills, and their Batteries
- Extension Cords
- Fans/Blowers
- Circular Saws
- Gas Cans
- Multi Outlet Extension Cord Hubs
